The negative statement with regard to inventive step relies on the following prior art documents; attention is in particular drawn to the passages given in parentheses:

- (1) DE-A-4 435 743 (column 3, lines 10 to 25; column 4, lines 36 to 49; column 5, lines 38 to 44; column 6, lines 12 to 35)
- (2) US-A-4 726 908 (column 1, lines 37 to 61; column 3, lines 2 to 5; column 4, line 5 to column 5, line 3; example 2)

As apparent from documents (1) and (2), the concept of coating detergent granules in a fluidized bed with a water-soluble coating material formed part of the state of the art at the priority date of the application under examination.

The inventions defined by claims 1 to 12 are considered obvious because they appear to merely concretise or supplement the prior art concept by

- (i) introducing restrictions defined so broadly that it does not appear plausible that (all embodiments of) the generic teaching defined by those restrictions should ensure the achievement of a desirable technical result not to be expected by a person skilled in the art and derivable from the application as filed and/or
- (ii) adding technical information rendered obvious by the common general knowledge in the relevant technical field.
